SHEPARD AGAIN.

The Editor of the Mail and Express Makes Trouble at a Detroit Convention.

he Loyalty of Ex-Confederates Questioned and an Investigation Now in Order.

The Lawyers in Session at Chicago Discuss ing the Merits and Demerits of Federal Courts.

DETROIT, Aug. 29.-The third day's session of the National Editorial association opened with an incident which rather marred the harmony of the proceedings. A local paper vesterday printed an interview with Col. Shepard, of the New York Mail and Express, in which the question of sectional feeling was referred to and Col. Shepard was credited with some remarks questioning the loyalty of ex-Confederates in the south to the union. It should be stated here that Col. Shepard, in an interview in a morning paper, said his remarks in the first interview have been garbled and their purport miscontrued. When the convention came to order this morning, Dr. Cranfill, of Waco, Tex., moved a committee be appointed to investigate the mental condiof sectional feeling was referred to and came to order this morning, Dr. Cranfill, of Waco, Tex., moved a committee be appointed to investigate the mental condition of Col. Shepard, and J. T. Stack, of Orange, Tex., seconded the motion, which was premply ruled out of order. The remainder of the morning session was devoted to the reading of papers. In the afternoon T. B. Eldredge again brought up the Shepard matter, saying the southern delegates had decided that should Col. Shepard further address the convention they would not attend the meeting.

Supreme Court Susiness. CHICAGO, Aug. 29 .- In the meeting of the National Bar association to-day Mr. Smith, of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution to the effect that the association favor the establishment of an intermediate appellate court to relieve the glut of the supreme court. Wilson, of Minnesota, said there was ne necessity for such an intermediate court, and that the evil at present lay in too great power possessed by soulless corporations in appealing claims to the federal court—the object of sessed by souliess corporations in appearing claims to the federal court the object of which, the speaker said, was to wear out litigants. Our state courts should have more power and the federal courts be restricted in their jurisdiction. Hon. Lyman Trumbull, of Illinois, supported the remarks of Wilson, and urged that a return to the law of 1879, which restricted the jurisdiction of federal courts to single states, be made. The matter was warmly discussed and finally postponed.

The matter was not further discussed this evening. At the meeting of the grand council of the association to-night William.

P. Wells, of Michigan, was elected president for the ensuing year. Mr. Wells is Judge Cooley's successor as the lecturer on constitutional law at the Ann Arbor university.

THAT EXTEA SESSION.

Opposed to It. DEER PARK, Md., Aug. 29.-Congressman McKinley was one of the principal callers on President Harrison to-day. They discussed the advisability of convexing congress in extra session. McKinley thinks an extra session inadvisable and that congress could not be well assembled, after hearing from the four new states, before November first, and then there would be but four working weeks, and that if by an extra session assume responsibility for their actions, while this would not be the case in a regular session.
